I. Data and Access

DataQuest

DataQuest is an online data tool located on the CDE DataQuest Web page at <http://dq.cde.ca.gov/dataquest/> that contains additional information about this school and comparisons of the school to the district, the county, and the state. Specifically, DataQuest is a dynamic system that provides reports for accountability (e.g. Academic Performance Index [API], Adequate Yearly Progress [AYP], test data, enrollment, graduates, dropouts, course enrollments, staffing, and data regarding English learners).

Internet Access

Internet access is available at public libraries and other locations that are publicly accessible (e.g., the California State Library). Access to the Internet at libraries and public locations is generally provided on a first-come, first-served basis. Other use restrictions include the hours of operation, the length of time that a workstation may be used (depending on availability), the types of software programs available on a workstation, and the ability to print documents.

II. About This School

School Description and Mission Statement (School Year 2010-11)

This section provides information about the school, its programs and its goals.

Old Adobe Elementary School is a learning community bringing a well rounded curriculum, infused with the visual and performing arts, in every classroom that benefits students. Old Adobe Elementary is a small school located in the outskirts of Petaluma, California. Old Adobe has 280 students in grades kindergarten through sixth grade. Old Adobe school is a vibrant learning community with a great deal of parent and staff collaboration. Our students achieve well on standardized tests with an API over 850 but we focus on educating the whole child by infusing the curriculum with the visual and performing arts. Our Parent Teacher Organization leads our parent involvement and brings leadership to the efforts of Old Adobe's parents. The PTO funds our physical education program and helps in many other areas including bringing Visual Thinking Strategies to all of our students. Old Adobe School is also working on building leadership skills in our students. This is done through school-wide assemblies focusing on positive like skills. We also have established positive routines, rules, and procedures and implemented these school wide. The families and staff work closely to strong moral character in our students. As part of this effort we are beginning work with our students to prevent bullying and to teach students how to not be bullied and how to avoid being the bully. This work has had a great impact on the school climate. The staff members of Old Adobe use current learning theory, brain research, and adopted curriculum to bring a motivating and challenging curriculum to the students. Students then demonstrate their learning through the visual and performing arts and other media. Technology is part of this with each classroom having a laptop, at least three working computers, a document camera, and a data projector. This allows teachers to bring media to the classroom and for students to demonstrate their learning to the entire class. Old Adobe brings parents and staff together, offers strong curriculum, has high achieving students, and is a true learning community of dedicated people.

Opportunities for Parental Involvement (School Year 2010-11)

This section provides information about opportunities for parents to become involved with school activities, including contact information pertaining to organized opportunities for parental involvement.

Old Adobe School is a thriving school community where parents have a tremendous impact on the experience the children have while at School. Parents are involved in many aspects of the school and make many activities possible through their generosity and support.

Classroom volunteering is one way parents support the students. In kindergarten parents come in and work with the students daily to support the language arts instruction. In second grade the parents are involved in a 'reading lab' and enhance the learning of students. This classroom involvement continues through all the grades to varying degrees. In some classes parents support art lessons while in others they may bring in experiences and artifacts to help with classroom curriculum.

Becoming part of the Parent Teacher Organization is another way parents improve our school. The PTO members lend their voice to the conversation of improving our school and are instrumental in providing energy and resources in bringing programs, materials, and services to the school community. The PTO provides such things as: Outdoor Education, physical education programs, school assemblies, staff appreciation, Back-to_School BBQs school directory, playground equipment, arts supplies, library resources, technology, teaching supplies, Science Olympiad, and many other enhancements to our school program.

Without parent involvement the experience students have at our school would not be as rich and meaningful as it is.

III. School Climate

School Safety Plan (School Year 2010-11)

This section provides information about the school's comprehensive safety plan.

Old Adobe School has had a very good safety record. Our school is well maintained and safety is watched over by both staff and families.

The school staff works with students to teach the importance of mutual respect and discipline incidents are dealt with at the appropriate level. Teachers and families work to bring behavior to the Old Adobe standard and other school staff are involved in supporting this. The school counselor, psychologist, principal, and behaviorist all become involved to support and maintain high standards of behavior.

These efforts, along with the partnership between staff and families maintain a high level of respect among the students at school and new arrivals to our school quickly are taught how to behave and care for others at old Adobe.

Types of Services Funded (Fiscal Year 2010-11)

This section provides information about the programs and supplemental services (e.g., information about supplemental educational services related to the school's federal Program Improvement status) that are provided at the school through either categorical funds or other sources.

Old Adobe School has many services available to students. These are funded through a variety of sources including the Parent teacher Organization, School and Library Improvement Bloch Grant, EIA funds, EL funds, state lottery, special education, and other funding sources.

Four instructional assistants are working with students at Old Adobe. These include a special education instructional assistant, a bilingual IA, an EL IA, and a classroom instructional assistant. These are funded through special education, EIA funds, and SIP monies.

We also have students who receive intervention from the kindergarten teachers in the afternoon. Classroom teachers also provide math interventions after school for much of the year. These 'math clubs' are funded through state hourly programs. Our students also receive regular counseling services funded through the EL funds. This is meant to help these students be more successful in school.

Parents also work daily using the Great Leaps Reading Program. This program helps students develop reading skills.

IX. Student Performance

Standardized Testing and Reporting Program

The Standardized Testing and Reporting (STAR) Program consists of several key components, including the California Standards Tests (CSTs); the California Modified Assessment (CMA), and the California Alternate Performance Assessment (CAPA). The assessments under the STAR program show how well students are doing in relation to the state content standards. The CSTs include English-language arts (ELA) and mathematics in grades two through eleven; science in grades five, eight, and nine through eleven; and history-social science in grades eight, and nine through eleven. The CAPA includes ELA and mathematics in grades two through eleven, and science for grades five, eight, and ten. The CAPA is given to those students with significant cognitive disabilities whose disabilities prevent them from taking either the CSTs with accommodations or modifications or the CMA with accommodations. The CMA is an alternate assessment that is based on modified achievement standards in ELA for grades three through nine, mathematics for grades three through seven and Algebra I and science in grades five, eight, and ten. The CMA is designed to assess those students whose disabilities preclude them from achieving grade-level proficiency on an assessment of the California content standards with or without accommodations. On each of these assessments, student scores are reported as performance levels. Detailed information regarding the STAR Program results for each grade and performance level, including the percent of students not tested, can be found on the CDE Standardized Testing and Reporting (STAR) Results Web site at <http://star.cde.ca.gov>. Program information regarding the STAR Program can be found in the Explaining 2009 STAR Program Summary Results to the Public guide at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/tg/sr/documents/pkt5intrpts09.pdf>. Note: Scores are not shown when the number of students tested is ten or less, either because the number of students in this category is too small for statistical accuracy or to protect student privacy. In no case shall any group score be reported that would deliberately or inadvertently make public the score or performance of any individual student.

X. Accountability

Academic Performance Index

The Academic Performance Index (API) is an annual measure of the academic performance and progress of schools in California. API scores range from 200 to 1,000, with a statewide target of 800. Detailed information about the API can be found at the CDE Academic Performance Index (API) Web page at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/ac/ap/>.

Academic Performance Index Ranks - Three-Year Comparison

This table displays the school's statewide and similar schools API ranks. The statewide API rank ranges from 1 to 10. A statewide rank of 1 means that the school has an API score in the lowest ten percent of all schools in the state, while a statewide rank of 10 means that the school has an API score in the highest ten percent of all schools in the state. The similar schools API rank reflects how a school compares to 100 statistically matched "similar schools." A similar schools rank of 1 means that the school's academic performance is comparable to the lowest performing ten schools of the 100 similar schools, while a similar schools rank of 10 means that the school's academic performance is better than at least 90 of the 100 similar schools.

Statewide	8	9	8
Similar Schools	5	5	5

Academic Performance Index Growth by Student Group - Three-Year Comparison

This table displays, by student group, the actual API changes in points added or lost for the past three years. Note: N/A means that the student group is not numerically significant or data were not available.

Adequate Yearly Progress

The federal Elementary and Secondary Education Act requires that all schools and districts meet the following Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) criteria:

- Participation rate on the state's standards-based assessments in ELA and mathematics
- Percent proficient on the state's standards-based assessments in ELA and mathematics
- API as an additional indicator
- Graduation rate (for secondary schools)

Detailed information about AYP, including participation rates and percent proficient results by student group, can be found at the CDE Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) Web page at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/ac/ay/>.

Adequate Yearly Progress Overall and by Criteria (School Year 2010-11)

Federal Intervention Program (School Year 2011-12)

Schools and districts receiving federal Title I funding enter Program Improvement (PI) if they do not make AYP for two consecutive years in the same content area (ELA or mathematics) or on the same indicator (API or graduation rate). After entering PI, schools and districts advance to the next level of intervention with each additional year that they do not make AYP. Detailed information about PI identification can be found at the CDE Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) Web page at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/ac/ay/>.

XII. Instructional Planning and Scheduling

Professional Development

This section provides information on the annual number of school days dedicated to staff development for the most recent three-year period.

Three full days per school year have been dedicated to professional development during the 08-09, 09-10, 10-11 school years. Activities have included training on newly-adopted textbooks and materials, meeting the needs of English learners and other student groups, differentiated instruction, the teaching of writing, making home-school connections across the curriculum, and applying the latest brain/cognition research to teaching and learning.
